

Safety Quiz

Multiple-choice instructions: Choose the answer that best completes each statement, and circle the letter (A, B or C).

Please print this quiz out to complete.

1. At short range, a shotgun is
 - A. less dangerous than a rifle.
 - B. not dangerous at all.
 - C. just as dangerous as a rifle.
2. A 20-gauge shotgun has a larger bore than a
 - A. 12-gauge.
 - B. .410.
 - C. 10-gauge.
3. The choke of a shotgun
 - A. is the same as the safety.
 - B. determines the spread of the shot.
 - C. determines the size of shell to use.
4. While hunting, you should push the safety off
 - A. only just before firing.
 - B. several minutes before you shoot.
 - C. Anytime after you get out of the car or truck.
5. If you pick up a gun, or someone hands you one, you should
 - A. pull the trigger to see if it is loaded.
 - B. look down the muzzle end of the barrel to see if it is loaded.
 - C. point it in a safe direction, open the action and see if ammunition is in the chamber or magazine.
6. A hunter must carry his gun in a safe manner so he can
 - A. throw it if he stumbles.
 - B. control the muzzle at all times.
 - C. keep his finger on the trigger.
7. When a pheasant flushes in front of a line of hunters walking side by side and flies behind them, who should shoot at it?
 - A. A hunter on either end.
 - B. A hunter in the middle.
 - C. No one.
8. When carrying a gun in a car, you should
 - A. unload it, open the action and put it in a case.
 - B. keep it loaded for a quick shot.
 - C. Leave it loaded in a case, with the safety on.
9. Which of the following is NOT one of the 10 Commandments of Firearm Safety?
 - A. treat every gun as if it is loaded.
 - B. control the gun muzzle at all times
 - C. a safety will always stop your gun from firing.

True-false instructions: Read each statement carefully. If it is true, circle the T. If it is false, circle the F.

10. A safe gun is one with the action open and unloaded. T F
11. A loaded gun can be dangerous even with the safety on. T F
12. Most home shooting accidents happen because of carelessness or lack of knowledge. T F
13. You should wear blaze orange to help other hunters see you when you're in the field. T F
14. Guns and ammunition should be stored side by side to prevent loss. T F

(Please print this form out and complete it)

Date _____

Name (print) _____

Signature _____

Exam Administrator _____

Club/Organization _____

Please record hunter's safety number if certificated:

State _____ Number _____